

Skills & Training

- Storytelling and public speaking
- Plain language and accessible content design
- Navigating Pennsylvania resources for finding and funding technology solutions
- Policy and legislative advocacy to promote technology access for all
- Using common device accessibility features

Specialist Resources

Video Stories

Each specialist shares their unique perspective and experience using technology for community living, education, employment, and self-expression.

One-Pagers

Plain language resources for the community on a variety of technology topics including:

- Artificial Intelligence
- Remote Supports
- Smart Home Technology
- Augmentative and Alternative Communication
- Internet Safety
- and more!

Find these resources at:
stateofthestates.ku.edu/tss

PENNSYLVANIA
TECH ACCELERATOR

Technology Solutions Specialists

Our Mission

Sharing lived experience, knowledge, and resources to ensure Pennsylvanians with disabilities get the technology they need to live, thrive, and connect.

Specialists Across the Commonwealth

Matt Smith

📍 Greenville
msmith@sau1.org

Quinn Crispell

📍 Swoyersville
mightyquinn9703@gmail.com

Gretchen Laudenslager

📍 Quakertown
glaudenslager@sau1.org

Joseph Reisner

📍 Philadelphia
josephreisner12@gmail.com

Nae Vallejo

📍 Philadelphia
nae.vallejo@gmail.com

Chris Moore

📍 Hatboro
cmm.11640@gmail.com

Bobby Evans

📍 Downingtown
revans0614196@gmail.com

Andre Rhone

📍 West Mifflin
andrerhone02@gmail.com

Specialists are available for speaking, consultant, and peer mentorship opportunities.

Contact a Specialist directly or learn more at stateofthestates.ku.edu/tss

Technology Solutions Specialists are a program of the PA Tech Accelerator, a partnership between Pennsylvania's Office of Developmental Programs and Office of Long-Term Living, The State of the States in I/DD, and Temple University, made possible with American Rescue Plan Act funds.